THE SPORTSMAN'S DIARY

January 3, 1940

Wednesday.

There was a party in the Country Life Editorial Offices to-day and the guests of honor were three alert little Cocker Spaniels. They are brothers and each in turn has won our field trial Cocker Trophy the three years it has been in competition. Spot, the oldest, won three years ago and came back to get his championship cup. He's a field trial champion now, and rather reserved as befits a dog of wide reputation. However he obligingly retrieved his own ear to his master. Spats, the kid brother, won for 1939, and Soot, the 1938 winner, came along to complete the picture. All three proved their steadiness to shot by not batting an eye when a flash bulb burst. Several humans were gunshy!

This is part of the day's work for Cinar's Soot the '38 winner

Spot, Soot, and Spats, the Cinar brothers, were bred by Mr. and Mrs. E. Roland Harriman who still own the latter two
